

INTERCOLLEGIATE BASIC EXERCISE RULES OF GOLF 2016-2019

There are two separate exercises in this series. One is BASIC with 50 questions and the other is ADVANCED with 100 questions. Each covers all the Rules of Golf except those dealing exclusively with match play (Rules 2 and 9) or other forms of play (Rules 29-32). BASIC is an introduction to the Rules and is intended for the intercollegiate competitor who is not yet proficient in the Rules. It focuses on the fundamentals in a way that covers many of the infractions that commonly occur in intercollegiate tournament golf. ADVANCED is intended for those competitors (and coaches) who want more than a basic understanding of the Rules and covers more complex situations including numerous real ones that have recently occurred in stroke play intercollegiate events. Each of these exercises is designed more to be completed with references (e.g., USGA Rules of Golf booklet) rather than as an exam to be taken and scored but each exercise should serve both purposes. The questions in both of these exercises presuppose situations in stroke play with both individual and team competition, that is, the form of play commonly found in intercollegiate competition. The level of difficulty of the questions in BASIC is such that the answers may be quickly found in the Rules of Golf booklet. ADVANCED questions are of moderate difficulty and most exam takers will require reference to the lengthy book, Decisions on the Rules of Golf. Both exercises should provide motivation for the competitor to learn why there was a lack of understanding of the principles involved in those questions that were missed. The suggestion for preparation of these two exercises originated in 1999 with Coach Frank Landrey of Liberty University, who saw the need to assist the intercollegiate competitor in search of a better game where knowledge of the Rules of Golf can be an important contributor to lower scores. Strong support for both these exercises and recent revisions also came from the late Coach Rod Myers of Duke University, a firm supporter of playing by the Rules. The original exercise was completed in January 2000 and is now updated to Rules of Golf 2016-2019 and Decisions of the Rules of Golf 2016-2017.

Exercise instructions: All questions consider stroke play only (no match play) as it normally occurs in intercollegiate competitions played under the USGA Rules of Golf. While there are four choices for the answer to each question, there is only one correct answer. Careful reading of both the question and the answer are essential to selecting that correct answer. Every word means what it says; do not read into a question something that is not there. When the question says to select a FALSE answer, be sure to identify the three choices that are TRUE in order to check your answer. If the question asks for the number of strokes taken or the player's score for the hole, make a sketch of the situation, counting actual strokes carefully and keeping a separate count of the penalties that the player incurred. Be certain of the location of the ball, e.g., on the fringe of the putting green vs. on the putting green, or, in the fairway vs. in the bunker (which is a hazard), or, in the lateral water hazard (red stakes) vs. in the water hazard (yellow stakes). Finally, there are a number of questions based solely on the Definitions found in the Rules of Golf. However, all the questions require a good understanding of the Definitions and that is a good place to begin your review after finishing the exercise.

  - C. A ball may be deemed unplayable at any place on the course except when the ball is in a water hazard.
  - D. A ball may be substituted for the original ball when proceeding under the unplayable ball Rule.
6. A player's ball is at rest on a putting green. In making a practice swing, the player accidentally strikes the ball causing it to move about 6-inches farther from the hole. The player plays the ball from its new position into the hole. What is the ruling?

10. A tee-marker interferes with the stance of a player when playing a provisional ball. The player moves the tee-marker to a new position only a few inches away and plays the provisional ball from within the teeing ground. Determining that the original ball is out of bounds, the player completes the hole with the provisional ball. What is the ruling?
- A. There is no penalty.
  - B. There is a penalty of one stroke under the ball out of bounds Rule.
